

Cystic Fibrosis strength in numbers

UK CF Registry Annual Data Report 2016 – At a glance

Our 'at a glance' version of the UK CF Registry Annual Data Report 2016 highlights the key information from the full report, available at cysticfibrosis.org.uk/registryreports

Annual Reviews

That's 108 more than 2015

Population age

20 is the median age of people with CF on the Registry of people on the Registry are aged 16 and over.

This is the first time it has been over 60%

Intravenous (IV) antibiotics

is the median number of days people with CF who had IV antibiotics spent on them

Chronic Pseudomonas

87%

of people with chronic Pseudomonas were prescribed inhaled antibiotics, compared to 75% in 2008

Median predicted survival for people born 2012–2016

47 years old is the median predicted survival overall...

...however it appears to be, 3.7 years lower for females than males with CF

Pregnancy

71 women
with cystic fibrosis had babies in 2016

48 men
with cystic fibrosis became fathers in 2016

Physiotherapy

57%
of people with CF include exercise as part of their physiotherapy, up from 37% in 2015

Transplant

46 adults received a lung transplant, compared to 42 in 2015

221 people with CF were evaluated for transplant in 2016, and 96 were accepted onto a transplant waiting list